Rating Action: Moody's downgrades New Jersey's GO bonds to A2 from A1; outlook negative

Global Credit Research - 16 Apr 2015

Downgrade applies to $2.2 billion of GO debt and $30 billion of appropriation-backed and GO-related debt

New York, April 16, 2015 -- Moody's Investors Service has downgraded New Jersey's general obligation bonds to A2 from A1. The outlook is negative. The ratings on the state's appropriation-backed, other GO-related debt, and intercept programs have also been lowered one notch (see detailed list below).

SUMMARY RATING RATIONALE

The downgrade to A2 was driven by the lack of improvement in the state's weak financial position and large structural imbalance, primarily related to continued pension contribution shortfalls. We expect liquidity and structural balance to remain very weak through fiscal 2016 - a longer period than contemplated in the A1 rating - despite some stabilization in budget performance, economy, and liquidity. Beyond fiscal 2016, the state's plan to restore long-term structural balance relies on economic growth and further pension reforms, which have uncertain timing and impact. The A2 rating also incorporates New Jersey's diverse economy and high wealth levels, as well as the governor's broad powers to reduce expenditures.

OUTLOOK

The negative outlook reflects our expectation that the state's financial and pension position will weaken further before pension reform, if successful, is implemented. Without meaningful structural changes to the state's budget, such as pension reform that dramatically improves pension affordability, the state's structural imbalance will continue to grow, and the state's rating will continue to fall.

WHAT COULD MAKE THE RATING GO UP

-- Improved pension contributions and funding that eliminates the risk of pension asset depletion
-- Indications that structural imbalance will be reduced to 7% of revenues in fiscal 2017 through sustainable budget improvements
-- Sustained improvement in budgetary balances above 3% of revenues
-- Reduced need for liquidity support (cash-flow borrowing and other cash management tactics) to less than 8% of budget

WHAT COULD MAKE THE RATING GO DOWN

-- Low fiscal 2017 pension contributions that maintain the high structural imbalance and/or sustain the actuarial projection of pension asset depletion in 2024-2027
-- Indications that structural imbalance will remain above 10% of revenues beyond fiscal 2016, for example due to delayed or diluted pension reform
-- Continuation of very low liquidity levels and/or combined liquidity support (cash-flow borrowing and other cash management tactics) that exceed 10% of revenues

OBLIGOR PROFILE

New Jersey is the 11th largest state by population in the United States. Its gross domestic product per capita ranks 8th among the states (in current dollars).
